

Medical Curriculum Vitae

Name: Bassam Almallah

Department of Paediatrics,

College of Medicine,

University of Mosul

Mosul City

Email: bassamallah66@uomosul.edu.iq

Qualifications:

-Fellowship of the Iraqi Board for Medical Specialization (paediatrics).
Baghdad, Iraq, 1998.

-Diploma of child health (DCH) from the Faculty of Medicine, Al-Mustansirya
University, Baghdad, Baghdad, Iraq 1997.

-M.B.ch,B Faculty of Medicine, University of Mosul, Mosul,Iraq 1989.

Current Position:

-Faculty Member (lecturer of pediatrics) at the College of Medicine, Mosul
University, Iraq from 1998 to date .

Clinical Experience:

Dealing with inpatients and outpatients at Alkhansaa Maternity Teaching
Hospital as a specialist paediatrician in Mosul City from 1998 to 2014.

Academic Appointments:

-Lecturer of Paediatrics in the department of Paediatrics, Mosul Medical College, University of Mosul, Mosul city, Iraq. 1998.

Past Positions and Jobs:

-Resident of paediatrics (as postgraduate training program) at Al-Khansaa Maternity Teaching Hospital in Mosul, Iraq from 1993 to 1998.

-General practitioner in district hospitals in Iraq from 1992 to 1993.

-Resident doctor in different branches of medicine and surgery in teaching hospitals in Iraq for two years from 1989 to 1991.

Professional Membership:

Member of the Iraqi Medical Association 1989 to date.

Honors and Awards:

Having many letters of thanks and appreciations from Ministry of Higher Education and Scientific Research and from Ministry of Health.

Workshops, Symposiums, and Conferences:

Participations in many symposiums as a speaker in Mosul Medical College.

Publications:

Faris B. AL-Sawaf, Bassam A.K. AL-Mallah (2001), Role of Iron Therapy in Children with Persistent Diarrhoea. Ann Coll. Med. Mosul. 2001; 27(2):73-76

Languages:

Arabic and English

Hobbies and Interests:

Travelling, Playing Chess